PartyGaming Plc
("PartyGaming" or the "Company")

Termination of Planned Sale Programme and Notification of a Transaction by a Director

On 2 March 2007 the Company announced that Mr Mitch Garber, Chief Executive Officer, had adopted a planned sale programme to dispose during 2007 of some of his PartyGaming ordinary shares of 0.0015 pence each ("Shares") he receives as a result of exercising his share options granted under the PartyGaming Plc Share Option Plan (the "Plan"). Under his planned sale programme Mr Garber was to have sold Shares between 19 December and 31 December 2007, however, the Company has today been advised by Mr Garber that he has decided to terminate his planned sale programme with immediate effect and does not intend to dispose of any further Shares in 2007. The Company has also been advised that Mr Garber has today exercised his share options granted to him and exercisable at nil cost under the Plan in respect of 3,500,000 Shares and as a result currently holds a total of 8,750,000 Shares. Mr Garber is contractually obliged to retain a minimum of 3,500,000 Shares whilst he remains an employee of PartyGaming.
